No.: C-07-2568 MHP

STIPULATION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER AND ORDER

36 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between the parties to the instant action who have 37 appeared, through the respective attorneys, that the protective order as hereinafter set forth be 38 entered:

39 1. The parties wish to provide a means of limiting use, access to and disclosure of 40 Protected Information which has been and is produced through discovery in this lawsuit.

1           2.       “Protected Information” is defined for purposes of this Stipulated Protective Order as 2 the following types of documents and information which have or will be produced by any party who 3 has appeared or will hereafter appear:

4           (a)       Information that constitutes a trade secret in accordance with Cal. Civil Code §
5 3426.1;

6           (b)       Information which is non-public communications with are intended to be kept 7 confidential and/or are protected from disclosure by statute or regulation;

8           (c)       Non-public business or financial strategies, and/or confidential competitive
9 information which, if disclosed, would result in prejudice or harm to the disclosing party;

10          (d)       Private consumer information that contains identifying, contact or private financial 11 information; or

12          (e)       Information which otherwise qualifies for protection under standards developed under 13 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

14               This Stipulated Protective Order shall apply to copies, extracts, and summaries of documents
15 designated as Protected Information. Protected Information shall be so designated by stamping
16 copies of the document produced with one of the following legends: “CONFIDENTIAL - SUBJECT 17 TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” or “CONFIDENTIAL.” Any such stamp or designation shall not 18 cover up, obscure or otherwise conceal any text, picture, drawing, graph or other communication or 19 depiction in the document. The parties agree that all the documents produced by plaintiff in her 20 initial disclosures and produced by defendant Gateway Title Company in its initial disclosures shall 21 be treated as Protected Information pursuant to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

22           3.       If any party objects to designation of materials as Protected Information, that party
23 may initiate a meet and confer process intended to resolve the issue. If that process is not successful, 24 the party may apply to the Court to challenge a designation made by any other party. However, the 25 parties shall comply with this Stipulated Protective Order unless the Court orders otherwise.

26           4.       Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be deemed a waiver of the right of 27 any party to designate any other information as Protected Information. If any Protected Information 28 is inadvertently produced to a discovering party without being marked as “CONFIDENTIAL,” the

1 party may thereafter designate such material as Protected Information and its initial failure to so 2 mark the material shall not be deemed a waiver of its confidentiality. Until the material is 3 designated as Protected Information by the producing party, however, the discovering party shall be 4 entitled to treat the material as non-confidential.

5         5. Except as may be otherwise provided by further order of this Court, Protected
6 Information shall be disclosed only to: (i) the parties to this lawsuit, and officers and employees of 7 the parties; (ii) the parties' attorneys and their support staff, investigators, agents and employees; (iii)
8 experts and consultants retained by the parties or their attorneys to assist them in the prosecution,
9 defense or settlement of this lawsuit and their respective employees, associates or colleagues; (iv)
10 the judiciary, its employees and its agents, including jurors involved in this lawsuit; (v) court 11 reporters, their transcribers, assistants and employees hired to assist the parties or the judiciary in 12 this lawsuit; (vi) witnesses at the trial of the action and deponents in this action where a party deems 13 such dissemination is necessary for the purpose of obtaining relevant testimony; and (vii) authors,
14 subjects and recipients of the Protected Information, (viii) employees of firms engaged by the parties
15 for the purposes of photocopying, electronic imaging or computer litigation support in connection
16 with this litigation. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall prohibit disclosure of Protected 17 Information in response to compulsory process or the process of any governmental regulatory 18 agency. If any person subject to this Stipulated Protective Order is served with such process or 19 receives notice of any subpoena or other discovery request seeking Protected Information, such 20 person shall promptly (not more than three (3) working days after receipt of such process or notice)
21 notify the designating party of such process or request, shall take all reasonable steps to refrain from 22 producing the Protected Information in response to such process, and shall afford a reasonable 23 opportunity for the designating party to oppose the process or to seek a protective order.

24         6. Individuals and entities identified above (other than jurors, the judiciary, its 25 employees and agents) to whom documents, correspondence, materials or information are to be 26 given, shown, made available, disclosed, or communicated in any way shall first be advised of the 27 terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, shall agree to be bound by it, and shall agree to be subject 28

1 to the jurisdiction of the Court to which this action is pending for the purpose of proceedings relating 2 to the performance under, compliance with, or violation of this Stipulated Protective Order.

3 7. (a) Without written permission from the designating party or a court order 4 secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, no party may file in the public record in this 5 action any Protected Information. Any party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Information
6 must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 to seek to file or lodge in sealed envelopes or other
7 appropriate sealed containers Protected Information labeled "CONFIDENTIAL: LODGED
8 CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL PENDING COURT ORDER," with an affixed cover sheet
9 which contains the entire case caption and a statement that the enclosed record is subject to a motion 10 to file the enclosed record under seal.

11 (b) Any Court hearing which refers to or describes Protected Information shall, in 12 the Court's discretion, be in camera.

13 (c) Any party may seek an order from the Court that any portion of its evidence at 14 trial be taken in camera, with all related testimony and documents designated as Protected 15 Information and placed under seal.

16 (d) Counsel for any deponent or party may designate specific portions of 17 deposition testimony or exhibits as Protected Information by indicating on the record at the 18 deposition that the testimony of the deponent or any exhibits to his testimony are to be treated as 19 confidential.

20 8. Upon the final disposition (including any appeal, writ, review or rehearing) of this 21 action, all Protected Information furnished pursuant to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order
22 and all copies thereof and all notes taken from such Protected Information that are not in custody of 23 the Court shall be destroyed by the party in possession thereof or returned to the disclosing party
24 within forty-five (45) days of the final disposition of this action. A party who chooses to destroy the 25 Protected Information in its possession shall provide Certification of such destruction in writing to 26 the disclosing party within forty-five (45) days of the final disposition of this action.

27 Upon request of the party who made the designation, each document designated as Protected
28 Information and filed with the Court under seal shall be retrieved, if possible, and either destroyed

1 by the party who filed it or returned to the party who made the designation within forty-five (45)
2 days of the final disposition of this action. A party who chooses to destroy the retrieved documents
3 shall provide Certification of destruction in writing to the disclosing party within forty-five (45) days
4 of the final disposition of this action.

5 9. Nothing contained herein shall prevent or preclude the use of documents, 6 correspondence, materials, or information designated as Protected Information in the prosecution or 7 defense of this action or any of the proceedings herein, provided that the use of such Protected
8 information is made with full and complete compliance with all provisions of this Stipulated
9 Protective Order. However, Protected Information, including extracts, copies and summaries
10 thereof, shall be used only for the purpose of this litigation and not for any business or other purpose 11 whatsoever.

12 10. The restrictions provided for herein shall terminate upon the return to the disclosing
13 party or the destruction of all Protected Information disclosed pursuant to this Stipulated Protective 14 Order.

15 11. This Stipulated Protective Order is subject to later modification by the Court on 16 application of a party or on its own motion. Further, this Stipulated Protective Order is without 17 prejudice to the right of a party to apply for an order modifying or limiting any designation of 18 information or documents as Protected Information.

19 12. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the designation of any information or 20 documents as Protected Information or failure to make such a designation, shall constitute evidence 21 or an admission with respect to any issue in this case, and shall not constitute a waiver of any 22 objections to the disclosure of Protected Information. Moreover, nothing in this Stipulated
23 Protective Order shall be construed to require any party to disclose to any other party any Protected
24 Information, or to prohibit any party from refusing to disclose Protected Information to any other 25 party.

26 13. Any party who subsequently appears in this action shall be bound by this 27 Stipulation unless they take steps to modify or revoke it as set forth above.
